TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday, September 6th, 1873.

The Orphan Asylum.

This great charity appeals to every heart in North Carolina for aid, and while Lodges in various parts of the State, and Churches and other bodies, have contributed of their means, our city has, as yet, remained silent. Wilmington, the largest city in the State, with some of its own orphans now at the Asylum, has done less than many small villages! We have wealthy men, wealthy Lodges and Churches, very fine amateur and professional musicians, and yet day after day glides by, and nothing is done! No one can object to the design or the management of this great work, and yet it languishes when it should flourish, and one hundred more children should be supported there.

Mr. J. H. MILLS is doing an immense labor, and should have more assistance from the people. In one of his late circulars, he makes use of the following sensible language: "Do not ask the Lord to move others to do what is required of you; but let your prayers follow (not go before) your alms." It is no uncommon thing to see pious men pray devoutly to the Almighty, sending Him upon all sorts of errands, and asking Him to perform all manner of duties. This class of people is especially noticed in brother Mills' appeal. He wants to see men come up with the money, instead of asking the Lord to feed the orphans. A little practical sense in this charity is of benefit, and we are pleased with Mr. Mills' manner of putting it home to every man. What shall be done? Will some of our liberal hearted answer?

Treaurer Spinner on Back Pay.

The New York Herald says: The amiable old gentleman whose signature is at the lower right hand corner of our currency, stated to a Congressman, when giving an opinion on the back-pay "covering" business, that he was no lawyer. But he volunteers an opinion as a layman that the only sure way for a Congressman to finally and beyond revocation "cover" his back pay into the Treasury is to do it "by a last will and testament, stating, as a consideration, the love and affection you bore your native land." There may be great truth in this, but it will bear a melancholic tinge, no matter how we may look at it. The good Congressman is invited, like the ill-used good Sunday school child, to sit down and contemplate his tombstone while the naughty Congressmen are gleefully eating their "butcher's meat." That it must be saddled with "a consideration" is touching. The expiring Congressman may solace himself with the idea that his patriotic shuffling off the mortal coil is dulce et decorum. Even Congressmen must pay the debt of nature, and why not now when the chances of future fame are so good. Generations would weep over any man of whom it could be said or written, "Died of back pay." Let them all make their wills, those who voted for the bill particularly, for

> The only way back pay to "cover,"
> To hide a sham from ev'ry eye,
> To prove yourself your country's lover
> And touch its heart, is but to die."

The New York police have in charge a man named Yates, on the charge of being implicated in uttering counterfeit Buffalo and Erie bonds. They expect to get something out of Yates, but so far he has kept quiet. Detective Sampson is very positive that forged stock of the Western Union to a large amount is in existence, which it is intended to put on the market. He also believes the same of New Jersey Central bonds. Mr. Denny says the detectives are on the right track, and in a few days will have all the forgers. He says the counterfeits have been in circulation since July, and there is no telling where they may have reached. A member of the law committee of the Stock Exchange says the Exchange would rather reimburse the victims for their loss than allow any compromise to be made.

A colored man residing in Wilkes county, by name of Rufus Parkes and and wife left their house on the 13th ult. to see after some business matters about their premises, leaving three small children in charge of their house. Upon their return to the place, once called home, they found nothing but a heap of embers and ashes, and to make the sight more shocking and painful, the three children they had left in the house had perished in the flames. So says the Mountain Messenger.

— The case of Page McCarty, charged with killing Mordecai in a duel near Richmond, was called, but the doctor testifying that his condition was no better than when he was shot, the case was continued until the 16th of October.—McCarty was bailed Friday in $10,000.

— The regular semi-annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints convened at Council Bluffs, Iowa, Thursday. Several thousand saints, from all parts of the world, were in attendance, and it is expected that the meeting will be unusually interesting, as Joseph Smith, son of the founder, is president, and is leading the meeting.

— A meeting of delegates from different Italian associations, representing 2,500, was held in New York Thursday night, and a committee of organization appointed to communicate with Italian associations throughout the United States, requesting their attendance at the regular meeting of the association, to be held in that city on Thursday next, to take into consideration the reputed slave trade among Italian boys.

— The authorities of Jerez, in Andalusia, fear a socialistic outbreak in that town, and have made a demand upon the Central Government for reinforcements for the garrison. Villacon, commander of the artillery in the Republican force besieging Carthagena, has tendered his resignation, alleging as his reason that the means placed at his disposal are not sufficient to enable him to maintain himself against the guns of the insurgents.

— The last mail from Japan announces the return of Minister Mori, late Minister to this country, and states that he was received coldly by the authorities. All American and foreign school teachers were ordered to observe the holidays prescribed by the old religion, and to continue their secular work on the Christian Sunday. This order was to pacify the excited adherents to the old religion, who exercise great influence among the common people, and still keep the authorities in fear. The teachers, however, refused to obey, and the matter was dropped without trouble. Mr. Tanaka is acting head of the educational department in place of Mr. Oki, recently made Privy Councilor.

G. W. Ingalls, Indian agent, telegraphs that he has held a successful council with the chiefs of seven different tribes at St. George, in southern Utah. They have agreed to-day to go on the Muddy Valley reservation.—These Indians represent all the Piutes in southern Utah and northern Arizona. Ingall's starts for Muddy valley to-morrow. The council is regarded as eminently successful. Ranch, chief, with a band of 170 Indians, agreed to take ninety to Muddy valley, and the balance of fifty or more agreed to go to the Wintah reservation. Tabin's band goes to Wintah, and all the Southern Indians were gathered at Muddy Valley. Supplies to the Piutes, Nevada and Western Shoshones will be distributed by N. W. Ingalls, assistant agent, next week. The latter will probably be induced to go to the Fort Hall reservation. The Indian problem is regarded as solved for the future in Utah and Nevada. Gen. Shanks, Congressman from Indiana, has arrived from the Indian investigation north.

And now Fayetteville wants to recuscitate its Shakspeare Club and go into the literary and courting business as of old.

Fayetteville is bragging of its manufacturing advantages, and is talking loudly of rebuilding its cotton factories. Good.

The Newbern Ctty Council have exempted capital engaged in the manufacture of cotton and woolen goods from city taxation.

Fayetteville brags of another smart young man—this time his name is Baxley alias Tyser, and he borrowed a mule by mistake and sold it for $85, and now the enterprising fellow views the landscape of Cumberland county from the other side of the grated window.

Asa Knight, a citizen of Friendship township, Guildford county, says the Greensboro Patriot of the 3rd, met with a serious accident on the 27th ultimo. He was cutting timber and had felled a large tree, when a limb broke off and was thrown back upon him, inflicting a very severe wound upon his head. It was thought for awhile that he would not recover, but he is now believed to be out of danger.

Durham has 14 tobacco factories in successful operation.

The Raleigh Sentinel tells the following: On yesterday morning Sol. Buffaloe, a colored man, was committed to the county jail, having been arrested for attempting the life of his wife, whom he suspected of infidelity. From his brother we learn the following facts: Sol. and his wife live on the premises of Mr. Simon Williams, in Swift Creek township, about eight miles from this. Sol. claimed to have reasons for believing that his wife was untrue to him, and on Saturday morning he charged it upon her and abused her in a most shameful manner. On Saturday night he appeared to be very penitent and desirous of making amends for his harshness in the morning. He soon succeeded in persuading his wife that he was sorry for what he had done and wanted to make friends. The wife was only too anxious to be restored to favor with her husband and meeting him in that spirit permitted him to take hold of her, and while pretendingly caressing her, he took from his person a large butcher knife, and plunged it into her abdomen, literally performing Japanese harakari. For three days her condition was very critical and it was thought she could not live, but she is now able to sit up and hopes are entertained of her recovery. This modern Othello will have a hearing this morning before his Honor the Mayor.

BURGLARY ON THE "HIGH SEAS."—Bryant Hammons, a white lad about seventeen years old, the steward of the steamer North East, was seen leaning in the window of Captain Paddison's room on board the steamer last night about one o'clock by Watchman George Williamson, and from his actions the watchman supposed that he was trying to rifle the pockets of Captain Paddison. The Captain being aroused the matter was investigated and t was discovered that the Captain's pocket book containing some sixty dollars and a few papers were gone. Mr. Williamson arrested young Hammond who protested his inocence of the charge brought against him. The pocket book and money were found in a dish in the cabin, when a search was instituted. The watchman thinks he heard Hammon throw it in the plate. Hammond says he was raised at Elizabeth City and that he has neither father or mother and but few relations.

To be pitied indeed is a young boy who has no mother to watch over him, and guide him in the way he should go.

SPIRIT THIEF.—This morning about 2 o'clock, Mr, Geo. Williamson, the private watchman of Mr. F. W. Kerchner, discovered York Wiggins, a colored man, on the wharf of Messrs. Harris & Howell, and thinking he was up to no good, approached and asked him what he wanted. Mr. Williamson recognized him as a man he saw on the same wharf about a month ago and ordered him off. The man left reluctanly and proclaimed against being made to leave as he paid his taxes, was a free man, etc., and threatened to sue the watchman in the morning. Mr. Williamson began to look about the wharf and soon discovered a boat with four spirit barrels in it. Mr. Williamson called a policeman and requested him to watch on one side of the wharf while he remained on the other. In a few minutes Wiggins returned to the boat from around the dock at the foot of Princess street and put another barrel in his boat and was about to start off when Mr. Williamson arose from his hiding place, and ordered Wiggins to stop.—Wiggins sprang upon the wharf and started up the street. He was fired at three or four times, but succeeded in dodging the balls, and continued running up Princess to Second, and up Second about fifty yards to the alley, up the alley until opposite the court house, jumped over the court house fence down into the yard which is about fifteen feet deep. Officer Moses Whiting was immediately behind him and jumped over the wall and with the aid of officer Wise succeeded in arresting him.—Wiggins was lodged in the guard house and will have a hearing before his Honor Monday.

Mr. Williamson has proven himself an efficient watchman, and has caught three would be burglars in the past two nights.

Trial of Defendants alleged to have Committed an Assault on J. H. Carraway.

Considerable interest has been manifested in this case, and the City Court room was crowded with spectators and witnesses. The following are the men charged with the assault: John Cowan, Sam'l Brown, Jerry Forbes, Henry Bradley. G. L. Mabson, Esq., appeared as prosecuting attorney; Adam Empie, Esq., appeared for John Cowan, and J. L. Holmes, Esq., for Jerry Forbes.

JAS. H. CARRAWAY sworn.—I reside in the city of Wilmington, corner 10th and Princess streets. Doing business in Wilmington. On the night of August 16th, between the hours of 12 and 1, I was going up Market street.—When near the corner of Fifth and Market street, I saw two men sitting on the foundation wall of Dr. Bellamy's fence. They were talking about a woman and said they were going home.—I walked slow to see who they were and saw John Cowan pass near the street lamp. I saw them coming along the street; there were two of them, but John was within 10 feet of me, on the side nearest to me. I am certain of John Cowan. Some one struck me and knocked me down, and of one them jumped upon my back, and crushed me down and run his hand into my pocket and got a bundle of cigars. I dont carry money with me. The police came to my relief.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. EMPIE.

I am certain it was John Cowan. I know him as well as I do you. The moon was coming up, and the lamplighter was about to put out the lamps. Cowan was nearest to me, and I suppose he is the man who struck me. They were coming along, and I thought they were going to pass me. I turned out one side to let them pass. When I first saw the men they were nearly to the centre of Fifth street block, but I didn't recognize him then. When they came toward me, I looked to see who was there, and when about ten feet from me, I saw who was coming, and it was John Cowan. I have been up to men in the day-time to speak to them, and found I was mistaken, but not when I knew a man as well as I did Cowan. I didn't speak to him. I had no business with him. I was just walking along smoking my pipe. Think the other man wore a dark hat. He was a black man, and a little taller than John. John had on dark clothes. I am sure the men had on coats. Am certain of that. Didn't notice the dress very particular. I walked slow to see who they were, while they were talking on Fifth street. I saw Cowan as he came along up toward me and passed under the reflection of the light. He was then about fifteen feet from me. I looked around twice, and probably more. I looked in John Cowan's face twice. I saw him under the gaslight, and again when close to me. I will positively swear that John Cowan is the man that I saw that night. There is no mistake about that. I saw him come up the street near to me, and he was the nearest to me as they came along. I am certain of that, and am certain he had on his coat. I heard these two men talking while they were near the corner, but don't know which was talking. This assault occurred between 12 and 1 o'clock. It was nearer 1 than 12 this was done. The assault was about four blocks from my home. I don't know that the defendant and I have been at loggerheads for the past three or four months, only he is no associate of mine.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. HOLMES.

When they came near me, I increased my speed. The gas light where I saw Cowan was on the corner of Fifth and Market, and I was assaulted on the corner of Sixth and Market. When I saw these men they passed the Fifth street light, which was behind me. The lamp ahead of me was not lighted.—The first intimation I had from them was a severe blow. While I was falling I cried "murder," and one of the men jumped on my back. A woman came up first after I was assaulted, and then officer Cutlar came up. This must have been two or three minutes after I was hurt. Officer Martin came up next and then several more came up. I only saw two persons when I was assaulted.

BY THE STATE.

The wound on my head is still severe. I was confined to my bed for over two weeks and have had two pieces of bone taken out. One of the wounds is running yet.

JOSEPH CUTLAR sworn.—I reside in this city. Am one of the City Police. On the night of the assault, I was standing on the corner of Dock and 6th street, and heard the cry of murder on Market street. I ran over there and found a man on the ground, who proved to be Carraway. The blood was streaming from his head. On the way to the scene of the outrage I saw two men running toward 5th street. Carraway was leaning on the fence, and said he was nearly dead. A young man came up and I told him to stay with Carraway while I looked after the two men running away. I dashed down the street, but fell on the guard post and they got away.

Afterwards, I went to Carraway's house, and he said that John Cowan was one of the parties who struck him. I went down the street with officer Martin and finally found John Cowan down near Water street. He was standing up in a shop there. He appeared to be excited because of his arrest and asked why he was arrested,

CROSS EXAMINED BY MR. EMPIE.

This was at half past 12. I looked at another gentleman's watch. It could not have been later than that when the outrage occurred. I was just one square removed from where Carraway was struck. The two men ran toward the river. I saw them until they crossed 5th street, where I lost them. Don't know which way they turned after they passed 5th and Market streets. Don't know that I saw them again. I told Cowan when we arrested him, that he was arrested for striking a man, and he said he had not been up on the hill that night and had not staicken any one. The assault could not have been committed after half past 12 that night, but it may have been before that hour. Cowan was standing in the shop when I went in. He was not perspiring or breathing hard at all.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. HOLMES.

When I heard the cry of murder I listened to know where it was, and then ran toward Market street. I saw two persons running from where Carraway was. I went up to Carraway and blew my whistle, and Martin came. We ran up Dock street to Eighth.

BY STATE.

The arrest was made about half an hour after the assault was committed.

E. F. MARTIN sworn—I live on Eleventh street. Am a policeman. On the night of the 16th of August, I had special instructions from my captain to keep a lookout on Market, between Sixth and Eighth streets, until 11 o'clock. I saw a suspicious character there, and so I waited until 12 o'clock to watch him. At 12 o'clock I heard three whistles blow in different positions. This man I was watching was a white man, and I told him he couldn't stay there. He went on down Market street, and while watching him I heard the cry of murder, and I ran down that way. I ran to where Carraway was, and he said "the scoundrel has gone, and Cutlar is after him." After chasing after the men unsuccessfully for some time, we went to Carraway's, and he told us that Cowan was the man who struck him. On the way down, we saw a man on the corner, who said he was waiting for Jerry Forbes, who had gone up to see Carraway. [The narration of the arrest of Cowan is similar to Cutlar's.]

The man I saw on the corner waiting for Jerry Forbes, was Sam Brown.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. EMPIE.

This was about half past 12 o'clock. I had seen that the stores on the hill were all closed up and this was within 5 minutes of the time. The white man I was watching went down Market street and I didn't see him again. Of course this wasn't John Cowan. The whistles I heard that night were not the policeman's whistles, but a very peculiar kind of a whistle. John Cowan knows how to whistle it, but I don't. The man I saw waiting for Forbes was Brown or Bradley, I don't know which. It is a very peculiar whistle. John Cowan can do it. I have heard him.—They have a way of calling each other. There is a crowd of men in this city we call "the string gang," who have strings and blocks and tools to fool the country people. They have a whistle to know each other.

JOSHUA J. HILL SWORN.

I reside in Wilmington. Am a carriage driver. I was on the corner of Third and Market when we heard the cry of murder and ran up toward Fifth street. Stopped on Fourth street. I heard that Carraway had been struck and followed police to Dock and Sixth. Went down Sixth to Market where Carraway was and helped take him Carraway home. The police arrived, and Carraway stated that John Cowan struck him. I went off with a police officer to find him. On Princess we saw Sam. Brown, said he was waiting for Jerry Forbes, whom we had left at the house. Went down Ninth to Market, saw two men crossing Market going up Eighth and overtook them. On corner of Sixth and Market we picked up some of Carraway's articles and took them to him. [His narrative of the search and arrest was similar to Cutlar's]

CROSS EXAMINED BY MR. EMPIE.

This was about half 12. I looked at my watch at 12 o'clock. I was on Third and Market when I heard the cry of murder, but the men who ran down didn't come near me. The men didn't run down Market street.

GEORGE N. HARRISS sworn—I reside in Wilmington. Am a newspaper reporter. On the night Carraway was stricken, I was at my room, and heard the police whistle, and cries of murder. I got up and came out, and went with the police to Carraway's house to see him. Carraway said John Cowan had assaulted him.

JOSEPH JENKINS sworn—I reside in Wilmington. About half-past 12 o'clock on the 16th of August, I was coming along Seventh street, and saw John Cowan and another man together, while I was going along. I went on Seventh to Red Cross. They were coming towards Market street, and I was going toward Red Cross. I heard a cry and noise afterwards, but don't know whether the cry was murder or what. The two men I met were Cowan and that man, (Brown.) I met them right on the corner of Market and Seventh streets, at the shop. We were close together. I said "hello John," and he said "hello Joe." I knew him perfectly well. We never had a quarrel. John and I have always been friendly. I always speak to him. The moon was up, and the lamplighter had just put the lights out. Don't know how the men were dressed. They had on dark hats and clothes.—Both had their coats on.

ROBERT FINNEY testified that he arrested Forbes, Brown and Bradley. The only importance to his testimony was the statement of Bradley, that he and Forbes were lying on the floor at Jane Anderson's house that night, and ran out when they heard the cry of murder. Forbes went on up to Carraway's house and Bradley stayed near Ninth street, where he was seen by officer Martin.

STEPHEN FREEMAN saw Brown that night on Market street, opposite the Baptist Church. He came across from near Dr. Bellamy's. This was about half-past nine in the evening.

JAMES LEGGETT saw two men that night on Market street, between Fifth and Sixth streets. One was standing up and the other sitting down. They were not talking. One had on a light coat, and the other a dark suit. Didn't know who they were. This was about eleven o'clock. Knew John Cowan; he was not there. Came on down Market street to a saloon, and saw John Cowan there.

F. MEYER knew John Cowan. Lives in his yard. He came out of the house about a quarter past 12 that night, smoking a cigar. Said the mosquitoes were pretty bad, and he was going to take a walk. Witness closed up his store at 12 o'clock, and was sitting on his piazza smoking.

DEE TOWERS knew John Cowan.—He saw him that night a little after 1 o'clock, in Brown's saloon. Witness came in about 7 minutes to 1 and Cowan came in at 20 minutes past 1. Was sitting by the door and saw Cowan come in. Had not been playing cards.—Cowan proposed to play draw poker, and they were playing there for some time. The principal part of Tower's evidence was on the exact time of this meeting.

Here the prosecution closed the case. The court that Henry Bradley and Jerry Forbes be discharged, and that John Cowan and Samuel Brown be held in the sum of $1,000 for their appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

The Winston Republican says:—A boy and horse were drowned at Hall's Ferry on the Yadkin river last Friday while crossing the river in a flat. The horse was attached to a wagon and the boy was standing near the end of a flat holding him when the horse became unmanageable and jumped into the river, the boy holding on to the bridle and going out with him. Neither one were seen after going down the first time.

The good little boys ain't all dead and gone yet; they have one at Kinston 14 years old who does wonderful things in the way of committing bible chapters to memory, and frequently commits as many as seven Psalms in a week. The POST thinks Eddy had better spend more of his time playing ball.

HALIFAX, September 6.

The American revenue cutter Woodbury, from Boston for Cape Breton and Magdalen Island, arrived this forenoon.

The coast wrecking steamer Lackawana, engaged for several months on the Atlantic wreck, sailed for New York to-day, the company having abandoned the wreck, which will now be sold.

The cable steamer Kangaroo sailed for London last evening.

A heavy southwest wind and rain storm prevailed last night and to-day.

A letter received here to-day from Magdalen Island gives the following particulars regarding the great storm there: The tide rose to an extraordinary height, caused a very heavy sea in the bay and vessels to ride heavily at their anchors. At daylight on the morning of the 25th the scene that presented itself at Amherst harbor is above description. Nine American schooners were already ashore and wrecked between Amherst and Baeque harbors.—During the day vessel after vessel continued to break adrift from their moorings, and those who were far enough to windward ran for the harbor and anchored with the ground tackle they had left on board, while others who had none, were obliged to run on the beach to save the lives of the crews. Many did not strike the channel and were wrecked. At noon the barometer fell to its lowest point 28.90. The shore at this time being covered with debris and wrecks, and hundreds of ships wrecked.

Destitute mariners were wandering about the beach, not knowing where to go to find food or shelter from the storm. The inhabitants of the village did all in their power to relieve the sufferers and administer to their wants as well as their humble means would afford.

About 4 p. m. the barque Swift, of Jersey, from Blanc Sablon, which had been riding with four anchors and cables ahead, was driven from them all, and having 130 souls on board, she endeavored to reach the harbor for safety. When nearing the breakers she became unmanageable, and drove upon the beach at its entrance, and became a wreck. When night closed in, 43 vessels were ashore wrecked. Fortunately the loss of life has been very small.

Only three bodies are missing from the schooner E. S. Smith, of Wellfleet, Mass. One of the bodies has been recovered.

AUSTIN, September 6.

On the fifth ballot yesterday, in the Democratic Convention for candidate for Governor, Richard Coke, of Waco, received 659 votes, being more than two-thirds of the entire vote, and was declared the nominee of the Convention. When the vote was announced, Colonel Hubbard, the only opponent of Coke on the last ballot, moved that the nomination be declared unanimous, whereupon it was passed unanimously, amidst the throwing of hats and the wildest excitement.

Judge Coke was called to the stand, and in a short speech thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him.

Col. Charles Stewart, of Houston, moved that the Hon. R. B. Hubbard be declared the unanimous choice of the convention for Lieutenant Governor.

Col. Jno. Henry Brown in a short speech withdrew his name as a candidate and seconded the unanimous nomination of Hubbard.

He was followed by other aspirants, Col. Finlay, W. H. King and L. J. Gore.

Col. Hubbard was then declared the unanimous choice of the convention.—Stephen H. Darden, of Lockport was unanimously declared the choice of the convention for Comptroller.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,
The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,
The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES
Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.
WM. E. SINN,

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all k nds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a goed job of work.
Very Respectfully,
EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.
Very Respetfully,
R. DICKEY, M. D.

MANAGER POST.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
